Chapter 4 Girl of Flame
It has been a week since Hinamori Rotan, a ninja who was after my life, is now living in my house
Hinamori lost the precious Omamori that I entrusted to her
The two of us are searching for it after school

...But ...
ゴクリ

Hmmm, that's strange
I'm certain that it fell off around here...

Geez, that Hinamori

I can't even look properly

I'll lend you my uniform from middle school~
Even if her uniform is destroyed, there's no replacement
Thank you so much Kana-sama !!
She didn't have to borrow Kana's uniform
The sizes don't match anyway...
That Hinamori, she keeps a straight face in situations where she's vulnerable
Although I can't argue that I enjoyed the view
EH HEH HEH HEH
I'm so worried that she'll be targeted by some perverted dude
Hey, pretty lady you're wearing some hot stuff~
Trying to hook up with me?
Come on, let's have some fun~

Kaen, don't you know it can't be helped even if you say so?

No way that's true!!
Stealthy ninjutsu is much preferred than a flashy style nowadays
There's nobody else that wants to learn the fire style techniques from the Higurima clan
I love the fire style the most!!
With a boom right here, and a pow right there
It's so awesome!!
Oh well
But if Grandpa quits, that means no one else will inherit the fire style...
Turn down the flames, you fool!! The pot will spill all over from boiling!
This is also why the fire style needs discipline!!
Ouch

They won't even think twice about the fire style if they're only here for the leader
But...
You silly girl, what will we do next even if we brought them here?
If our village can bring a person like him to our side, we'll have more people like we used to
Oh yeah, I heard about a rumour about the leader of all Shinobi showing up
He goes by the name [Mikado Shuuji]
Even if you randomly gather people together, they will never understand the value behind the fire style
But... At this rate, the fire style will disappear!!
Listen up, Kaen
What's truly important is that people acknowledge how wonderful the fire style can be and how much value it holds as a ninjutsu
So... All I need to do is to make them understand the value of the fire style...?
Then it's only a matter of time before my generation's fire style is over
You might as well be the last survivor of the fire style users...

Then it's settled
I'll become Mikado Shuuji's bride!!
Huh !?
If everybody knows that the leader's wife uses the fire style, they'll surely know it's valuable as a ninjutsu!!
I'm off to find Mikado Shuuji!!
Hold on... Wait, Kaen!!
Make sure you prepare the ceremony while you wait for my return!!

yo translator you may or may not read this but thank you and take your time

So by now you guys noticed how I screenshot all of your comments on the credit page. See, this is something that Uncharted Scanlations do to interact with the reader base. We may not be able to see each other in real life, but the least we can do is show how large and close the online scanlation community is right here, right now.

I don't get paid for this, and even if I did, it won't be a steady job for me. I do this because I was a reader just like you guys, itching for the next translated chapter. Of course, I feel so sad whenever a series has been dropped and forgotten, but you need to remember that other people have lives and commitments in real life too. Me? I just do what I can to squeeze enough time to give closure to us fellow readers.

WE NEED MORE REDRAWERS AND SCANLATORS!!!

Now I know that you guys are super excited to have this series picked up, but I still get people shouting out which manga series I should work on next. Here's the deal: how would you like it if somebody demands you to do something, only for them to not even lift a finger when you ask for their help? I'm lucky to have even one more person to help out, but working on scanlation projects by yourself is really going to burn you out... That's life for you, hmm?
